PARENT TIPS

Read and discuss the key point from the class your child(ren) attended. Use the Table Talk questions to start a discussion around the dinner table during the week. The Living Faith activity demonstrates how God will separate those who believe in him from those who were never his followers. The Extra Mile guides your family to watch videos of worship songs based on this chapter of The Story and a video about the importance of telling others about God.

GET THE POINT

Jesus is coming again. I can live in his kingdom forever.

TABLE TALK

- What do you think Jesus means when he tells John, "I hold the keys of death and Hades"? How has Jesus demonstrated that?
- Jesus warns the churches about their behavior. Look at several of them. Do churches battle these same problems today?
  - Church in Ephesus—forgotten first love
  - Church in Sardis—live according to what you know about God
  - Church in Laodicea—lukewarm; need to live on fire
- Which of the above problems do you deal with the most?
- Now that you've completed The Story and know more about God, do you think it's going to be easier or harder to live for him? Why?
- Are you ready, because Jesus says he's "coming soon"?

LIVING FAITH

Some scary things happen in this chapter of The Story. Battles are fought. Strange-looking creatures appear. God judges everybody and separates those who know him and people who never followed him. The Bible says, "Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life will enter the city." When you pray to accept Jesus into your heart, God's Lamb writes your name in his book. God knows everybody's heart, so he can easily separate out his followers.

Do a fun experiment that allows you to separate salt from pepper. You'll need a paper towel, salt, pepper, and a balloon. (If you don't have a balloon, a comb can work, too.) First, create a small pile of salt and pepper. Make sure they're well-mixed together. Second, blow up the balloon and rub it quickly back and forth against your hair. Rubbing it against a wool sweater works, too. Once you've created enough static electricity, move the balloon slowly toward the pile. The pepper should "jump" up and stick to the balloon, while the salt will be left behind. Try the same experiment using a comb. Create your pile of salt and pepper, then comb your hair. Put the comb about an inch from the pile and separate out the pepper.

- Is the pepper better than the salt and that's why it jumps to the comb? (No, the pepper is lighter and more easily attracted.)
- As Christians, are we better than people who don't believe in Jesus? (No, we just followed the Holy Spirit's prompting and made the decision to follow Jesus.)
- Because God's judgment day is going to happen, don't you think it's super important to share God's love with everybody?

EXTRA MILE

1. According to this chapter, there's going to be a lot of singing in heaven. Go to YouTube and watch videos about these two songs that are directly based on passages from Revelation:

- Search "To Him Who Sits On The Throne Lyrics Don Moen" at YouTube or go to www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZxQBNJ1ISXY
- Search "Holy Holy Tim Hughes" or go to www.youtube.com/watch?v=4TM6c\_09eJg&feature

When you've watched both videos, see if you can find those verses in The Story. Talk about what you think heaven will be like.

2. Jesus is coming again. It's a fact! Only those who believe in him will receive eternal life. Those who reject Jesus will suffer forever. The consequences are huge. This video from illusionist Penn Jillette shows the impact that living a real life for Jesus can have on an atheist. It may not be appropriate for every family, but it has a powerful message.
